We've got a good meeting coming up for you!

This upcoming Monday, August 13th from 7-9pm in the basement of Waverly Church (3300 SE Woodward St), we've got our Oregon House Representative, we've got city staff from the Bureau of Planning and Sustainability coming to engage us on upcoming projects, we've got local community members talking about past and upcoming projects, and we even have some board deliberation and discussion on multiple topics.

If you love local community meetings, this should be a great one!

To better help us determine how best to allocate our time, please let me know what interests you most by filling out this quick survey:

Survey: 2018-08 RNA Meeting - Topic Interest

I've been working hard to fill our fall with some great and topical presenters, local leaders, and engaged local citizens. We'll be covering many local city projects, have as many of those representing you in government as possible, and have more discussions on how to create a better positive impact to our community. We welcome those who want to learn more and get involved.

Looking forward to seeing many of you next week,
Matt Otis
